Serenity Lane partners with Umpqua Health Alliance, will begin accepting OHP for treatment services

(MARCH 9, 2017) Roseburg, Oregon—Serenity Lane drug and alcohol providers announced this week a new contract with Douglas County CCO, Umpqua Health Alliance, to accept the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) for addiction treatment services including Intensive Outpatient, Recovery Support, mental health and DUII programs at their Roseburg clinic. Serenity Lane will also begin accepting OHP referrals from Umpqua Health for detox and inpatient programs at its residential campus in Coburg, Oregon.

"We're excited to partner with Serenity Lane to provide Umpqua Health Alliance members increased access to a comprehensive collection of addiction treatment services," said Sue Goldberg, vice president of network and business development at Umpqua Health. "This partnership will complement the variety of programs we already offer our members and ensure they receive the help they need when and where it's needed most."

Serenity Lane opened the outpatient office in 1993 to help provide a range of outpatient addiction treatment services to the people of Douglas County. Under the new agreement, Serenity Lane will accept Oregon Health Plan for detox, residential, Intensive Outpatient, mental health, long-term recovery support and DUII programs.

"This agreement will allow Serenity Lane to provide lifesaving programs to more men and women struggling with addiction," said Tony Haynes, Clinic Manager of Serenity Lane in Roseburg. "We save lives and put families back together and this agreement is a big step forward in that mission for us."
