	month, OHA is sponsoring an art contest for children to help promote dental health ages 4-18 (does need to be able to upload to a website, needs to be captured through a picture or poster. Needs to be submitted by 4/20, see flyer for more information. Also, there's a study that shows OR needs nearly 3,000 mental health and substance use treatment beds to close gaps and meet needs for future care (roughly a $500 million cost for just the beds, doesn't include operational costs). The redetermination process is ongoing, OHA is on track to get to the initial process by the end of the spring but there is a small group of folks (100,000 people) that will need to go through another process. OHA has gone through about 85% of OHP members, and about 1 million people have kept their benefits, and 167,000 found ineligible. There is help for people affected by winter storms – ODHS field office can replace food that was destroyed by a fridge/freezer going out (for SNAP benefit recipients, must contact within 10 days). Bevin shared updated information on masking, and added that 25% of Oregonians have received the updated COVID 19 vaccine (while 8% of Oregonians have received the flu shot). RSV vaccine is only recommended for infants and seniors. There's another poster contest about Radon. OHA director is doing a quick
